(15) And the Lord God took the man (the adam),and put him into the garden of Eden. --The narrative now reverts to Genesis 2:8, but the word translated put is not the same in both places. Here it literally means He made him rest, that is, He gave it to him as his permanent and settled dwelling. To dress it and to keep it.

Adam the gardener (Book, 2011) [WorldCat.org]

In the 1940s, Adam the Gardener was a national treasure. Each week in the Sunday Express, he advised gardeners exactly what to plant and how - from carrots in the fourth week of May (but 'do this after sunset, when there is less chance of trouble from the carrot fly') to lily-of-the-valley in the fourth week of November.
