Spiritual Adults Described: 1) They constantly use the Word of God, saturating themselves in it. As a result, they have a good moral compass, able to make choices that line up with Scripture. (Heb. 5:14; 1 Jn. 2:14) 2) They build on what they already know. As a result, they go deeper with the Lord. (Heb. 6:1)

Spiritual Growth Levels: Ministering to Spiritual Adults

The disciplines of the Christian life, including prayer and serious Bible study, are among the means God uses to mold a boy into a man and to bring spiritual maturity into the life of one who is charged to lead a wife and family. This spiritual leadership is central to the Christian vision of marriage and family life.

The Marks of Manhood - Boundless

Spiritual growth is a similar concept but is far more important. Growth is development or improvement toward a goal called "maturity" (or, in the Bible, "perfection"). When one is "born again" as a child of God, he is spiritually immature. As time passes, he should develop the qualities or abilities which the Bible says characterize the mature.
