Franz Kafka The Castle

The Castle is a 1926 novel by Franz Kafka. In it a protagonist known only as "K." arrives in a village and struggles to gain access to the mysterious authorities who govern it from a castle. Kafka died before he could finish the work, but suggested it would end with K. dying in the village, the castle notifying him on his death bed that his "legal claim to live in the village was not valid, yet, taking certain auxiliary circumstances into account, he was permitted to live and work there." Dark a

The Castle (novel) - Wikipedia

The Castle is an unfinished novel—as Max Brod, Kafka’s literary executor, observed, Kafka intended that K. should die exhausted by his futile efforts to gain access to and acceptance from the elusive, local authorities but that on his deathbed his character was finally to receive a permit to stay in the village—and it stands as testament to the Kafka’s achievements that its

"The Castle", analysis of the novel by Franz Kafka | LitHelper

Kafka's final novel was written during 1922, when the tuberculosis that was to kill him was already at an advanced stage. Fragmentary and unfinished, it perhaps never could have been finished; perhaps the tensions between K., the Castle and the village, K.'s struggle for acceptance or recognition by the mysterious Castle authorities or by the people of the village, never will and never can be ...
