Refugee (XX) - Credo Lyrics | Genius Lyrics
I believe there is something else. entirely going on but no single person can ever know it, so we fall in love. It could also be true that what we use everyday to open cans was something much nobler, that we'll never recognize. I believe the woman sleeping beside me doesn't care about what's going on outside, and her body is warm with trust

Credo by Matthew Rohrer - Poems | Academy of American Poets
A creed is a symbol of something larger—and, ultimately, of Someone we love. Someone who loves us and makes us who we are, by means of creeds and other graces. There are a number of creeds that the Church recognizes, but the Nicene Creed (used at the Mass) and the Apostles' Creed (prayed during the Rosary) are the two primary creeds.
