Life In The Fat Lane

Life in the Fat Lane isn't poorly written, and it's readable insomuch as I always wanted to know what happened next. It's not poorly conceived because I believe the intention was right. Unfortunately, it's poorly executed, oftentimes seemingly arguing against its own intended theme, and for that reason, I can only give it TWO AND A HALF STARS.

Garfield: Life in the Fat Lane was not the funniest book of Garfield comic strips I have read. I don't think I even cracked a smile and only found a few that I considered entertaining. I find it interesting how Jim Davis is funny in waves. Some books are filled with extremely funny situations while other are dull in comparison.
