First, Momentum Masters offers no colorful biographical details, literary flourishes, or other diversions with which many market books, including some excellent ones, try to "spice up" or lighten the material. This book is all meat; questions and answers all pertain to trading. Second, as you read through the questions and answers, take note of the differences as well as the common characteristics among the four masters. As I said, the format was chosen deliberately to facilitate comparisons. David Ryan, a
