"A Story" by James V Wynn Perhaps 180 years or so previous to the murder of Maitre in the first eponymous novella of The Fifth Head of Cerberus, French explorers landed on a planet that would known as St. Anne. The atmosphere is the same as Earth. This is never explained -- and doesn't have to be because it is a staple of science fiction.

The V Head of Cerberus

Gene Wolfe, The Fifth Head of Cerberus (Millennium, 1999) reviewed by Robert Borski "When I was a boy my brother David and I had to go to bed early whether we were tired or not."
